

IAC- INTERNATIONAL ART COMPETITION FOR YOUNG ARTISTS CIVIDALE DEL FRIULI – ITALIA

RULES

The International Art Competition (IAC) is a part of the Festival “ May in Cividale Youth 2022”. The subject for IAC for the year 2022 is “WATER”, water in all natural or social manifestations (river, lake sea, rain, snow, irrigation, waterfalls, watermills, etc).

Art. 1 – Aims

The Competition aims to stimulate students’ creativity through individual creation in visual arts, and will foster International Art and Cultural Exchange in the next future.

Art. 2 – Artworks

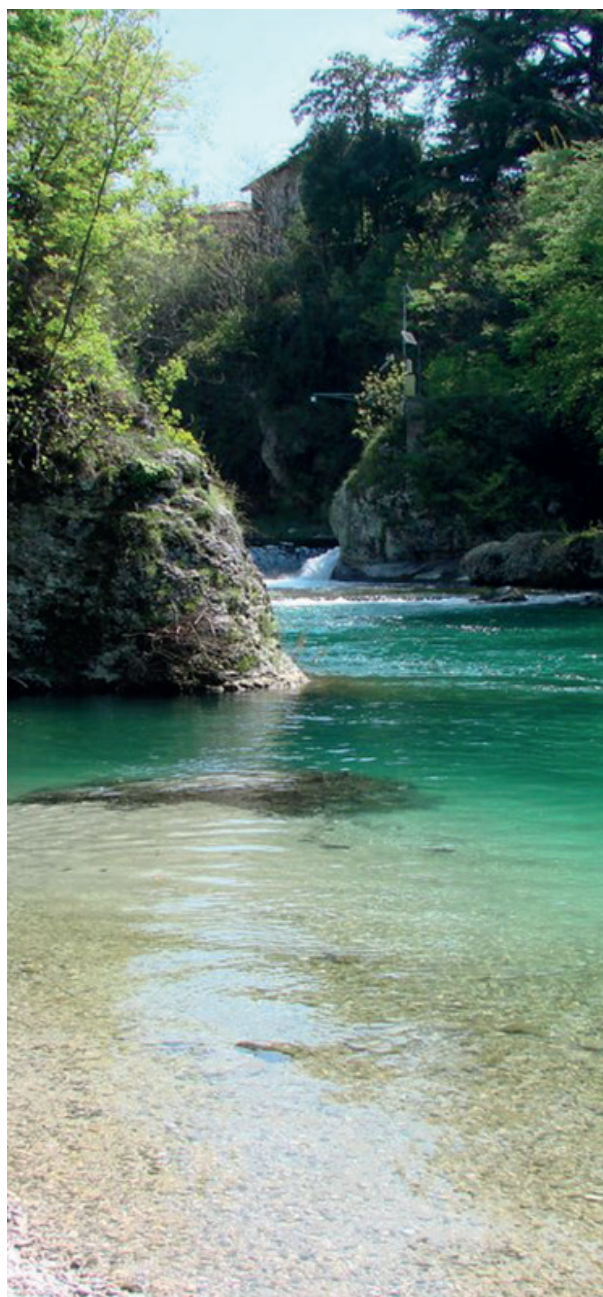

All artworks should be sent by mail, together with ANNEX A, to the following address:

IAC - Convitto Nazionale Paolo Diacono
P.tta Chiarottini, 8
33043 Cividale del Friuli Italia

All entries should interpret and reflect the theme “WATER”.

- Artwork can be created of any material or media (e.g. painting, printmaking, photography, collages, and computer graphics) in 2-dimensional format of small thickness, (up to 5 mm max). Fragile, dangerous, pollutants or emitting odour materials should be avoided.
- Artwork must have a minimum size 40x40 cm and a max size of 100 cm x 100 cm, and should be folded or rolled up and NOT framed. The artwork can be of any shape (rectangular, square, round, etc).
- Each student should not submit more than TWO pieces of work. Group work is NOT accepted.
- Each entry should be accompanied with an artist’s statement of not more than 50 words in English interpreting the idea of the artwork. The artist’s statement should be typed in the space provided in the Entry Label.
- Entries not complying with the competition requirements will be disqualified.

All entries complying with the contest regulations will be judged according to the following criteria:

- Interpretation of the theme: "WATER";
- Visual appeal and aesthetic quality;
- Originality and creativity;
- Use of techniques and media and Presentation skills.

The decisions of the judging panel are final.

Art. 3 – Return of Entries

Entries will be retained for educational purposes and will NOT be returned.
